On THURSDAY

Robin Oakapple – shy, upstanding gentleman farmer – is desperate to ask the lovely Rose Maybud to marry him. But he hasn't the courage! Truth is he hides a dark secret; he is the heir to a curse on all Baronets of Ruddigore and has been living in disguise to escape an evil fate - until the truth is discovered! This hilarious parody of Victorian melodrama has it all: the villain who carries off the maiden; the primly perfect heroine; the hero in disguise; the snake in the grass; the manic, kooky damsel – plus a superfluity of bridesmaids and 'fraid' of ghosts!! Good becomes bad – and bad becomes good in the village of Rederring. And an ancestral gallery comes alive at the Ghosts' High Noon!

IF YOU HAVE BOOKED and will be having lunch at the Bundanoon Hotel before the performance, we need you to pre-order your lunch.

Lunch is $33 pp to be paid to the hotel directly on the day.
