Day 6. Thu 24 May: Le Morne Unesco World Heritage Site - West Coast Cruising B,L,D

After breakfast we depart the resort and make our way through Le Morne stopping at the Matthew Flinders Memorial. Matthew Flinders had set out from Sydney to complete a survey mission of the Torrens Strait in late September 1803 bound for England aboard his stricken 11 metre vessel the Cumberland with a crew of 10. By early December 1803, the condition of Cumberland was such that a decision was made to call at the island of Mauritius, then a French possession. Flinders was hopeful of obtaining a replacement ship here. Accused of being a spy, he spent six and a half years in detention here. It was not until March 1810 that, mysteriously, his French captor, the Governor of Mauritius, Decaean, agreed to free Flinders. He was finally released from Mauritius on 13 June 1810 and arrived back in England on 24 October. Leaving this monument we travel past the iconic Le Morne Brabant Unesco World Heritage Site that symbolises "Slavery in Mauritius" and their fight for freedom, their suffering, and their final sacrifices. We stop at the magnificent Slave Route Memorial, erected to honour their plight. The surrounding sculptures symbolize the different countries from which the slaves were brought into Mauritius or to which they were sent after transiting via Mauritius. The existing sculptures represents Mozambique, Madagascar, India, China, Malaysia, Haiti & Réunion island. Two sculptures are yet to be added, those of France & Senegal. The Slave Route Monument was inaugurated on the 1st of February 2009 for the 174th anniversary of the Abolition of Slavery in Mauritius and is part of the slave route of the Indian Ocean. We then continue up the West Coast to Rivière Noire where we begin our ½ Day Catamaran Lunch Cruise. If one is lucky, numerous dolphins can be seen in the morning playing in the area or catching fish. Then we sail south towards La Roche Crystal with its crystal clear lagoon while the crew prepares a delicious BBQ on board. After lunch we sail back to Rivière Noire with a cocktail in hand...the beauty and tranquillity of this whole region cannot be missed and will create a wonderful lasting memory. Mid-afternoon we arrive back at the jetty and transfer back to the resort to relax once again. Later we meet for our complimentary pre dinner drinks and dinner.

Day 7. Fri 25 May: South East Coast Mahebourg - Half Day Tour B,L,D

A delicious full buffet breakfast is enjoyed by all before taking off on our leisurely half day morning tour. After boarding our coach we make our way east to the beautiful seaside port and fishing village of Mahébourg sitting next to the largest lagoon on Mauritius. There is something relentlessly charming about bite-size Mahébourg (my-boor) which was founded in 1805 and named after the famous French governor Mahé de Labourdonnais. The town was once a busy port, but these days it's something of a backwater, with a small fleet of fishermen. We enjoy a stroll through the Mahébourg seaside markets "foire de Mahébourg" where we will find a roaring produce section, rows of tacky bric-a-brac and steaming food stalls. It's the perfect place to try some of the local snacks – gâteaux piments, dhal puris, samousa and chilli bites! We then visit the H. Rault Biscuit Factory where the Seneque family have produced unique manioc (cassava) biscuits since 1870 and is now run by the 4th generation of the family. The making and baking is still very traditional and that's the beauty of it, but they have kept developing new (natural) flavours and variants. We also visit the monuments recounting the epic naval battles of the past between the French Navy and the Royal Navy. The Dutch historical museum or Fredrik Hendriks Museum in Grand Port recounts the early Dutch settlement of the island. We then travel back to our resort for lunch and a relaxing afternoon which can be spent lazing poolside with a cocktail or enjoying the many facilities, activities, food and beverages that come complimentary with our "full board" inclusion. Later in the day we meet for complimentary pre dinner drinks and dinner.

Day 8. Sat 26 May: Curepipe - Escale Creole - Eureka House B,L,D

After breakfast we depart the south of the island and begin our drive to the north through the central region taking in the most magnificent views of the Trou aux Cerfs volcanic crater before arriving into Curepipe where we enjoy some retail therapy. Our next stop is for lunch! Welcome to the Escale Creole! We enjoy a unique dining experience in the true sense of Mauritian Creole tradition and share authentic home cooking and the lifestyle of Marie-Christine and her mum Majo. Mum (Majo) is the chef who reigns in gentle authority on the pots and pans simmering since early morning and Marie-Christine is the head of the team which will make us live a true moment of discovery and relaxation in a picturesque setting and an unforgettable atmosphere! This afternoon we stop at the 150 year old Eureka Mansion and Garden. Situated in the fresh and lush climate of central Mauritius, the famous residence "Eureka" was built during the French colonial period and once belonged to a very well known Mauritian family. The main part of the estate has been turned into a museum, and offers us a guided tour through this magnificent colonial house, its lush gardens and down to the cascading river. Later we meet for complimentary drinks and dinner.

Day 9. Sun 27 May: Port Louis – Capital of Mauritius B,L,D

After another delicious breakfast we depart the resort and travel north into the Mauritian Capital of Port Louis. After arriving in Port Louis we visit the Natural History Museum of Mauritius where we view skeleton remains of the extinct Dodo Bird.

Day 9. Continued

We then enjoy a cultural highlights tour of the city including the port precinct of Le Caudan Waterfront, consisting of boutique shopping, markets, cafés and museums including the Blue Penny Museum which is worth a visit (own cost) for “stamp collecting buffs” as it houses two of the rarest stamps in the world. After leaving Port Louis we experience the grandeur of the 150 year old Château de Labourdonnais which is a family home that has welcomed more than three generations of the Wiehe family. Our tour encounters the vast dining room, house pantry revealing the world of the governess, with vintage dinnerware and silverware. Following the back veranda we return to the hallway to find the large living room which contains a stage design highlighting the range of furniture and the decorative trends of the time. The master bedroom, decorated in Victorian style, is the next step before arriving at a screening room and exhibitions halls. After touring the château, we enjoy a drive through the lush gardens and old orchards. Besides endemic plants, the orchards host fifty varieties of hundred-year-old mango trees, spice trees such as nutmeg and clove, as well as several exotic fruit trees such as the pomme jacot, the sapote, the jamalac and the Kythira plum. Further on, large orchards provide fruits such as papayas, mangoes, guavas or passion fruit, which are used in the manufacture of the Labourdonnais product range. During the drive through the gardens, we will have the opportunity to make a stop in a park where giant Aldabra tortoises graze peacefully. We also visit the rum distillery which exemplifies the diversification of the sugar cane industry - since sugar cane culture has been going on for 150 years and still continues, even after the closure of the sugar factory in 1960. It is the pure cane juice that is used in the manufacture of the delicious agricultural rums of the distillery labelled Rhumeur and La Bourdonnais. After our tour we enjoy lunch at the “La Terrasse, just two minutes’ walk from the Château, is a small café offering a selection of traditional Mauritian dishes as well as more international fare. Our last stop for the day is at the beautiful Sir Seewoosagur Ramgoolam Botanic Garden, formerly known as Royal Botanical Gardens Pamlemousses. The oldest gardens in the Southern Hemisphere are spread over 37 hectares and were first constructed in 1770. The gardens, for a long time ‘ranked third among all the gardens that could be admired over the surface of the globe. While the garden is most famous for its giant water lilies, the garden features spices, ebonies, sugar canes as well as 85 varieties of palms from Central America, Asia, Africa and the islands around the Indian Ocean. Many trees have been planted by world leaders and royalty, including Princess Margaret, Countess of Snowdon, Indira Gandhi, François Mitterrand and Robert Mugabe. Later in the day we travel south to our resort for a rest before meeting up for complimentary drinks and dinner.

Today we travel to the far North of the Island and enjoy a delightful morning touring around Grand Baie which includes a stop at Cap Malheureux where take a look inside the red-roofed Notre Dame Auxiliatrice. It’s worth a quick peek inside for its intricate woodwork and a holy-water basin fashioned out of a giant clamshell. We then visit the amazing Sugar Museum which follows the trail of Sugar in Mauritius. Once lusted for as much as gold sugar has enjoyed an extraordinary existence, leaving a profound impression on the history and identity of Mauritius. By following the trail of the Sugar Adventure with over 250 years of history, we can trace the history of the whole country, as in a book – a mixture of faces, the verdant or silvery sugar cane in the countryside and the sunny, colourful customs. Our tour of this modern museum created from the old sugar mill includes displays, audio visual and interactive experiences concluding when we reach the well stocked gift shop.
