CONSTITUTION

PREAMBLE

Probus was first established by Rotary in the United Kingdom in the 1960s before becoming established in New Zealand in 1974 and Australia in 1976. The name "Probus" derives from the fact that, historically, membership was originally for retired and semi-retired PROfessional and BUSiness people.

Probus Clubs are accredited by Probus South Pacific Limited (PSPL) through the adoption of this Preamble and the Articles of Accreditation (Articles) set out below. These are adopted by each Club on formation and can only be changed by PSPL following consultation with all accredited Probus Clubs. Clubs that become incorporated on or after formation include the Preamble and the Articles in their constitutions. Probus Clubs may be sponsored by PSPL or by a Rotary Club, a Probus Club or Probus Association following agreement with PSPL.
